

CONTENT EDITING

Substantive/Structural Editing: Clarifying or reorganizing a manuscript for content and structure, checking for logical development of idea, continuity, flow, point of view and voice.

Does not include the following unless contracted in advance:

- research
- writing original material

Stylistic Editing: Clarifying meaning, eliminating jargon, polishing language, checking narrative fact only (i.e.: is something true within the narrative or fiction created), and other non-mechanical line-by-line editing.
